- The Shoemaker's Radio (1934) Tribute to Rosa Arciniega by Miguel Molina-Alarcón (Universitat Politècnica de València). Sound gift of Art Birthday 2018.

Duration: 2' 28' '

Description:

Radio-performance of the text "La radio del zapatero" (The Shoemaker's Radio, 1934) by Rosa Arciniega (Peruvian writer who lived in Spain in the decade of the thirties), which recalls an experience she had while listening to the relationship rhyming the sounds of a shoemaker's hammer with the voices of the announcers of his radio, in addition to the words he exchanged with his customers and other external sounds of the shoe store. This reminds us of the "shared listening" or "radio community" of the beginnings of radio, of which Salomé Voegelin speaks in his text "A Short History of Radio Listening" (2013). This work has been recorded in a shoe store in Valencia on December 22, 2017 with the occasional sounds produced by the shoemaker David Marín, the speaker of his radio player and the customers who entered the shoe store. Thanks to the Ministry of Economy and Competitiveness of the Government of Spain (project number HAR2014-58869-P).

With the participation of the shoemaker David Marín. Recording made in the shoe store "El sabater" of Valencia.
